Serena & Jean celebrated their birthdays

A double celebration for Ann and a lovely celebration for both her and Mervyn this month as not only was it Ann's birthday, they also celebrated 61 years of marriage on the same day! Staff came together to toast the happy couple. Happy Anniversary to you both ❤️

We love to see fresh flowers throughout our home and everyone takes great pride in arranging them each week...

Maintaining and respecting everyone's personal faith and beliefs is so important to us here at Charnwood. We always encourage our residents to continue practicing, and endeavor to support them as much as possible.

As an example of this we have always held praise services inhouse, as well as our monthly Holy Communion services, with Reverend Mark, once a month. Because of the present situation these services are presently conducted via Zoom, however were previously held in house and member's of the local congregation would join us too.

Rather than give you the reasons why maintaining a person's faith is important, I thought it would be more special to get the personal perspective of this from one of our lovely residents....

Please allow me to introduce you to Betty. Her faith has always been important to her and when she joined our Charnwood family she had in fact asked for more faith sessions to be delivered....

"My faith has always been important. It gives me a sense of belonging. It makes me feel stable and safe. I was brought up going to church and it's a tradition passed down from my family. We would never do anything else until we had been to church. I also attended the Sunday School from a very young age. It brings people together."

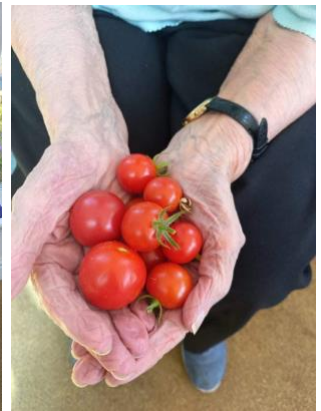

I would like to introduce you to the newest members of our team.... Lyndsey and Lyndsay

Lyndsey has joined our lovely care team and Lyndsay is our Quality & Compliance Manager

Welcome to you both!

Jill was very happy with our tomato harvest
